

Eastbay Black Cat Division

Men Ready for Furloughs

TRIB D JUL 31 1945

More than 200 officers and enlisted men of the 13th Armored "Black Cat" Division were at Camp Beale today, scheduled for processing and 30-day furloughs before returning to the Marysville camp for group movement to the reassembly station at Camp Cooke.

The division, adopted in 1943 by the State Assembly as "California's Own," was organized and trained in this State in 1942, and last Fall went overseas. In Europe the division took part in the Battle of the Ruhr and was credited with capture of more than 20,000 Germans in that area.
